Native guides will reveal the mysteries of the swamps and bayous and the Cajun "joie de vivre". Discover how the seafood from these bountiful waters provides a wide assortment of delectable local dishes!

Observe the nesting grounds of alligators, egrets, raccoons, nutria, and many species of snakes. Learn why the wetlands are disappearing and the efforts to correct the damage caused by man and restore this vital habitat.

Steamboat Harbor Cruise                      Sunday 2-4:30                      ($30)

Your two-hour cruise from the heart of the French Quarter takes you back to when cotton was king and life was slow and graceful as the current on the Mississippi. You'll see New Orleans, one of the world's most active ports, as it can best be seen, from the river aboard New Orleans' only authentic Steamboat.

Cocktail (walking) tour*                      Monday 4-6:30p                      ($30)

Take a walk through the French Quarter's famous bars and restaurants and discover the famous "spirits" of New Orleans. It's history...with a twist!

From the Sazerac and Pimm's Cup to the Hurricane and Hand Grenade, you'll enjoy a different view of New Orleans through its history of fine dining and drinking. You'll be entertained with classic stories of the unique concoctions made famous here and the characters that brought them to life.

Go behind the scenes at the oldest restaurant in the city to visit the wine cellar and the private dining rooms. You'll be shaken (not stirred) by the recipes of the city's most infamous cocktails along the way.

Ghosts & Spirits (walking) tour*                      Monday 7-9p                      ($25)

New Orleans has been referred to as "The most haunted city in America." With its colorful history and unique traditions, it is no wonder so many New Orleans homes and taverns have been visited by paranormal investigators. You'll visit several haunted sites and hear about the stories featured on The History Channel and The Discovery Channel.

When it rains in the French Quarter, the locals swear a beautiful voice floats out of the mist. After you hear the story of Pere' Dagobert vs. "Bloody" O'Reilly and the "singing rain," you might hear it too. You may see any of the ghosts that inhabit the famous Bourbon Orleans Hotel - formerly a theater, ballroom, orphanage and convent. The staff and guests report regular sightings! Bring your camera. You never know who will want to pose for a picture!

*Note: This is a walking tour on uneven sidewalks and streets, so you'll want to wear comfortable shoes!
